Breast Cancer Expert Kristi Funk To Headline Tower Speaker Series

By Laura Coleman

Internationally renowned breast cancer expert and surgeon Kristi Funk, who became something of a celebrity after operating on Angelina Jolie, will headline Tower Cancer Research Foundation's Cancer Free Generation (CFG) Speaker Series on Wednesday.

The exclusive event, which takes place at 6:30 p.m. at United Talent Agency in Beverly Hills, will explore the topic "Breast Cancer: Is it Out of Your Control?" in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness month.

The quarterly speaker series, which is part of CFG's commitment to supporting Tower's community education goals, offers attendees the chance to learn about cutting-edge advances in cancer research with some of the field's top practitioners in an intimate setting.
