Fourth
OF July

IN PACIFIC PALISADES

Patriotic Paliritas

Nothing puts you in a more celebratory mood than themed food and drink. These red, white and blue margaritas will get you crowd and firework ready for this year's Fourth of July celebrations.

These margaritas are filled with the taste of summer sunshine, with just the right kick. For a less sweet drink, the honey can be omitted. Plenty of ice is also suggested to ensure a thick consistency can be achieved.

RECIPE

FROZEN STRAWBERRY MARGARITA INGREDIENTS:

- 2 cups (12 ounces) frozen strawberries
- 1/2 cup tequila
- 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
- 1/4 cup agave nectar (or honey)
- extra ice, if needed

FROZEN BLUEBERRY MARGARITA INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup (12 ounces) frozen blueberries
- 1/2 cup tequila
- 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
- 1/4 cup agave nectar (or honey)
- extra ice, if needed

FROZEN COCONUT MARGARITA INGREDIENTS:

- 1/2 cup coconut milk (I recommend full-fat)
- 1/2 cup silver tequila
- 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
- 1/4 cup agave nectar (or honey)
- extra ice, if needed
- Optional: a fresh lime wedge and margarita salt or sugar, to rim the glasses

INSTRUCTIONS: Blend ingredients together and enjoy!

Jessica M. Berman, a loving Pacific Palisades wife, mother and friend, was diagnosed at age 34 with breast cancer while five months pregnant. She became a tireless fighter for her life and an inspiring advocate for others afflicted by this disease. Though Jessica passed away in August 2014, at age 38, her legacy lives on through the WONDER WOMAN WALK.
