

BEVERLY HILLS COURIER

The Newspaper of Record for the World of Beverly Hills

DAY OF BEAUTY— Scores of beauty professionals and over 100 cancer fighters and volunteers from across Southern California joined Tower Cancer Research Foundation's fifth annual "Day of Beauty," held this year at B2V Salon. Hosted by Tower's Young Leadership Division—Cancer Free Generation—the Day of Beauty, where cancer survivors are invited to indulge in complementary spa and beauty services, is one of the foundation's most beloved patient support programs. Pictured left: a cancer fighter enjoys a bit of pampering during the course of the day. Above right (from left): Tower Chairman Donna Rosen, Cancer Free Generation co-president Jennifer Levy and Tower Executive Director Linda David at this year's Day of Beauty.

